MARKS, William R. "Bill"

William R. "Bill" Marks, 88, of St. Augustine, FL, died Tuesday, (September 18, 2001). Born April 6, 1913 in Hartford. Mr. Marks leaves a son, William R. Marks, Jr. and daughter-in-law, Joan Marks of Burlington; a daughter, Eleanor Margaret Marks and son-in-law, Walter Soule of Riverton; a daughter, Anne Marks Patten of St. Augustine, FL. He leaves his five grandchildren, Sarah Read Patten, Anne Elizabeth Patten, Linda Preira, Deborah Freeman, Raymond Marks; and seven great grandchildren. Mr. Marks was the director of WTIC Radio in Hartford, for 32 years. He enjoyed playing concert tuba with orchestras throughout New England for 50 years. He was a proud lifelong ham radio operator with the call letters W1DEF and W1AP. Retired and living in Jacksonville, FL, "Bill" joined the "Recycles" an orchestra of older great, giving musicians and helped entertain children and adults for another 13 years. For the last several years he lived with his wife and daughter in St. Augustine, FL, as he enjoyed new friends and the history of the "Oldest City". He reluctantly leaves his wife, Irene D. Marks, after joyously celebrating their 63rd wedding anniversary. Cards and letters from people William Marks touched in his life would be greatly appreciated by his family at 26 Rohde Avenue, St. Augustine, FL 32084. Memorials may be to the charity of your choice. Mr. Mark's favorite charity was The Salvation Army. Arrangements by HardageGiddens Funeral Home, Jacksonville Beach, FL.
