

Bob Steele enters Radio Hall of Fame

■ Bob Steele poses next to a portrait of himself at a reception before his induction into the Radio Hall of Fame Sunday night at the Museum of Broadcast

Communications in Chicago. The WTIC radio personality, who was nominated in the category of regional and local personalities, shared the honor with Connecticut radio executive Edward McLaughlin. Others receiving awards included humorist Stan Freberg, the "CBS World News Roundup" program and several African American broadcast pioneers.

Steele, who began his broadcasting career in 1936, retired from full-time broadcasting in 1991.

